Mental Capacity: whose role is it anyway?

Where does the SLT fit and who else from the MDT is involved?
Where do roles start and end?

A full study day focusing on mental capacity and the Mental Capacity Act (2005), advanced directives, power of attorney and deprivation of liberty and how these inform and influence the SLT role and remit. The day will consist of speakers from both legal and medical (AHP) fields and include Speech and Language Therapy based case studies and discussion groups.

Date: Tuesday 10th March 2015

Time: 9.00am – 4.30pm

Venue: National Hospital for Neurology & Neurosurgery, Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG

Speakers:

- 🔗 David Flood Lead Nurse Adult Safeguarding , St George's Healthcare Trust
- 🔗 Delfin Posada Partner & Head of Private Client Department, Setfords Solicitors

Speech and Language Therapist case presentations and discussion:

- 🔗 Sukhi Aujla, Speech Therapist, Camden Neuro & Stroke Service
- 🔗 Vicky Warner & Angela Posada, Speech Therapists, St George's Healthcare

Learning objectives

- 1) To increase understanding of the legislation and policy in health care particularly the Mental Capacity Act (2005)
- 2) To examine implications of legislation for SLTs in practice
- 3) To develop knowledge of a number of approaches to supporting people who lack capacity in regards to managing their care, where the SLT role starts and also the remit of the role
- 4) To support networking between colleagues in similar fields and very different fields and enable sharing of ideas
- 5) To explore the impact of SLT intervention in supporting people with cognitive and communication difficulties and their families in making complex decisions about their care
